1. ESF Equality and Sustainable Development Awards
2. London ESF Awards 2010

ESF Equality and Sustainable Development Mainstreaming 'Leader' Awards Launched

These awards give special recognition to providers, including subcontractors, who have made a special effort to mainstream equal opportunities or sustainable development – either by:

- using effective mainstreaming policies and implementation plans; or
- providing specialist support, which targets specific equality groups or has a particular environmental focus.

The awards apply to the 2007-2013 England ESF programme. There will be awards at both national and regional level. National award winners will be selected from regional winners.
